

Family Seder

You know the story: The Prince of Egypt, your children have probably seen the movie. Egypt, eons of years ago: Pharaoh Seti commands all male Hebrew babies to be drowned. A desperate mother places her son in a basket and lets the Hebrew God guide it along its way on the river. The basket is found by a member of the royal family, and Moses is brought up with Ramses, heir to the throne of Egypt. Years later, the two companions, who grew up happily and wealthy, are split by Moses' recognition of his true heritage and the suppressing system Ramses is about to inherit, willing to carry it on. Fleeing from the city in despair, Moses finds himself being called by God. He is given the task of being the messenger in order to free the Hebrews and to lead them into a country where milk and honey flow.

Learn to celebrate its memory. The Seder is an intergenerational family ritual meal prescribed according to Jewish law and based on the interpretation of the Biblical verse commanding Jews to retell the story of the Exodus from Egypt: "And you shall tell it to your son on that day, saying, 'Because of this God did for me when He took me out of Egypt.'" It is filled with story telling, Music, games, ritual eating and a meal.
