Job Descriptions

Shopkeepers: In the market place you'll guide children in making a unique, hands-on arts & crafts project, or be a food shop proprietor. In your role as a Roman merchant, you will help children understand how your shop fits into ancient Roman culture at the time of the early Church. A shopkeeper only has to teach one craft/activity during the week and this has been planned for you.

Family Time Leaders: An easy-to-follow leader manual and Family Time Teaching Kit help you co-lead a Roman "Family" of approximately 10 children. You'll share in meaningful traditions and rituals—and build relationships!

Games Leader: Lead fun activities as you help kids discover games children played in ancient Rome and how they prepared for careers such as chariot racing and firefighting!

Drama Team: Every day you'll enjoy telling stories, improvising, and surprising the visitors to Rome! Actors are needed for various roles, including the Apostle Paul, his Roman guard Brutus, and members of the early Church who are gathering secretly to worship Jesus.

Decorating Team: Help create inviting shops in the Market Place that reflects ancient Rome.
